Mark Wilson a neighbor to the west is opposed to the rezone. He stated that when Fullerton's was doing the development that lot was left to be dedicated as a park and the city has never built the park. He said that was one reason why he moved there.

Jason Hehr has lived to the north for 15 years and is opposed to the rezone. He would like to see it used as it was intended for the green space and has concerns with the busy intersection.

Cory Arneson lives two houses north and is opposed for the same reasons stated by the two previous people.

Geri Beck, director of MADC, said they will put the lot up for sale with covenants or build a house with the newly created Mitchell Area Housing Incorporated group. This will be a $300,000 dollar house to fit the neighborhood.
