Bookopoly

How to Play:

- Read books and complete challenges between January 3 - March 20. Complete as many as you wish. They do not need to be completed in order
- Completing a color set earns you one prize entry.
- The 500 and 750-page properties are one entry each.
- The four corners (Go, Book Sale, Visit the Library, and Library) are decorative.

After you read a book or complete a challenge:

- Put a house sticker on the property.
- Write the title of the book on the list to the right.
- Titles can only be used for one challenge.

Chance

- Checkout a red chance book from the adult area
- Completing two chance books will earn you one prize entry.
- Keep an eye out for books with two chance question marks. These books allow you to complete both properties at once.

Attend a library event

- Bring your board to the library when you attend an event to have it marked off by library staff.
- Attending two library programs during the duration of bookopoly will earn you one prize entry.

Please return your game board to Mitchell Public Library by Sun., March 20.
